

MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

Distinction Doors Ltd is committed to ensuring that no acts of modern day slavery and human trafficking takes place within its business and supply chains.

Organisation Structure

Distinction Doors is based in Barnsley and is a trade only supplier to the UK Door Fabrication industry. Distributing quality, cost effective and innovative entrance doors, glazing cassettes and triple glazed glass that are all built to stand the test of time. We currently employ 113 employees with an annual turnover of £40m.

Supply Chains

We currently procure product from the Far East and Europe. Distinction Doors do not currently procure any goods or services from any nation of high risk according to the Global Slavery Index.

Our Policies on Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking

During this financial year we have implemented a policy "Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy" aimed at ensuring no modern slavery or human trafficking takes place in any part of the Company's business or supply chain. The policy reflects the Company's commitment to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls aimed at combating slavery and human trafficking. The responsibility of the policy lies with the Board of Directors who will provide adequate resources, training and investment to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the organisation or its supply chain.

Due Diligence process

We are selective over who are suppliers and customers are, they must share the same values and ethics as Distinction Doors. Our supplier approval processes are currently being developed and will incorporate a review of the controls undertaken by the supplier. The company will not support or deal with any business knowingly involved in slavery or human trafficking. We visit our overseas suppliers at least annually.

This statement is made pursuant to Section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31st December 2016.
